Study abroad checklist

partner university Spring semester: between 1 September and 1 December	_	The state of the s
Application procedure			Who can advise				е	1
Check that your passport is valid for travel to your destination country and whether you need to obtain a visa if staying in Europe, apply for a free European Health Insurance Card from your health insurer	>		Home institution (HU)	Study Abroad Coordinator	Home institution (HU)	International Office (IO)	Host institution	Partner university	Others	When destination country and whether you need to obtain a visa If staying in Europe, apply for a free European Health Insurance Card from your health insurer You will be informed about the application procedure at the partner university You will be informed about the application procedure at the partner university abroad accepts your application, your final placement will be confirmed You fulfill all the application requirements and the partner university abroad accepts your application, your final placement will be confirmed You fulfill all the application requirements and the partner university abroad accepts your application, your final placement will be confirmed You fulfill all the application requirements and the partner university abroad accepts your application, your final placement will be confirmed You fulfill all the application requirements and the partner university abroad accepts your application, your final placement will be confirmed You fulfill all the application requirements and the partner university abroad accepts your goabroad You fulfill all the application requirements and the partner university of the confirmed You fulfill all the application requirements and the partner university of the confirmed You fulfill all the application requirements and the partner university of the confirmed You fulfill all the application fulfill year: Practical matters to arrange before you go abroad You fulfill all the application fulfill year:	Α									T
If staying in Europe, apply for a free European Health Insurer You will be informed about the application procedure at the partner university If you fulfill all the application requirements and the partner university abroad accepts your application, your final placement will be confirmed If you fulfill all the application requirements and the partner university abroad accepts your application, your final placement will be confirmed Practical matters to arrange before you go abroad Join the HU Study & Internship Abroad group on Facebook Check your options to take a language course to improve your communcation skills As soon as you receive the correct visa in time Look for grants and scholarships If staying in Europe, apply for the Erasmus+ status and Erasmus+ Grant for Study Arrange official approval for your country and if necessary get your control is apply for a length shocal language If applicable, apply for public transport smartcard (OV-chipkaart) reimbursement If applicable, apply for a grant for students living away from home (ultwonendenbeurs) If you wish, arrange authorizations for dealings with institutions like DUO and your bank Check the costs of obtaining cash in your destination country and apply for an international Student Identity Card (ISIC) for A least two months before going abroad At least two months before going apposed At least two months before going appoad At least two months before going appoad At least two months before going appoad Apply for an international Student Identity Card (ISIC) for					١ :	X			X
Insurance Card from your health insurer
You will be informed about the application procedure at the partner university X X Spring semester: between 1 September and 1 December September September and 1 December September and 1 December September September and 1 December September September September September September September September September									X	,
If you rulfill all the application requirements and the partner university abroad accepts your application, your final placement will be confirmed Practical matters to arrange before you go abroad		You will be informed about the application procedure at the			:	×	>	<		Fall semester and full year: between 1 February and 1 July Spring semester: between 1 September and 1 December
Join the HU Study & Internship Abroad group on Facebook X X When you know where you are selected for		university abroad accepts your application, your final			2	×	>	<		between 1 March and 1 August Spring semester: between 1
Join the HU Study & Internship Abroad group on Facebook X X When you know where you are selected for
Check your options to take a language course to improve your communcation skills If necessary, apply for the correct visa in time Apply for housing at the partner university or search for housing yourself Look for grants and scholarships If staying in Europe, apply for the Erasmus+ status and Erasmus+ Grant for Study Arrange official approval for your course selection from your Examination Board Obtain health advice for your country and if necessary get vaccinations Check if you are allowed to bring your medication and/or bring prescriptions in English/local language If applicable, apply for a grant for students living away from home (uitwonendenbeurs) If you wish, arrange authorizations for dealings with institutions like DUO and your bank Check the costs of obtaining cash in your destination country and apply for a n International Student Identity Card (ISIC) for		ractical matters to arrange before you go abroad			1					IVV/h o n v o v l v o o v v v h o no v o v o v your communication skills If necessary, apply for the correct visa in time If necessary, apply for the correct visa in time Apply for housing at the partner university or search for housing yourself Look for grants and scholarships If staying in Europe, apply for the Erasmus+ status and Erasmus+ Grant for Study Arrange official approval for your course selection from your Examination Board Obtain health advice for your country and if necessary get vaccinations Check if you are allowed to bring your medication and/or bring prescriptions in English/local language If applicable, apply for public transport smartcard (OV-chipkaart) reimbursement If you wish, arrange authorizations for dealings with institutions like DUO and your bank Check the costs of obtaining cash in your destination country and apply for a credit card if necessary Apply for an International Student Identity Card (ISIC) for					2	×			×	selected for
If necessary, apply for the correct visa in time					2	×			×	selected for housing yourself Look for grants and scholarships If staying in Europe, apply for the Erasmus+ status and Erasmus+ Grant for Study Arrange official approval for your course selection from your Examination Board Obtain health advice for your country and if necessary get vaccinations Check if you are allowed to bring your medication and/or bring prescriptions in English/local language If applicable, apply for public transport smartcard (OV-chipkaart) reimbursement If applicable, apply for a grant for students living away from home (uitwonendenbeurs) If you wish, arrange authorizations for dealings with institutions like DUO and your bank Check the costs of obtaining cash in your destination country and apply for a International Student Identity Card (ISIC) for X When you know where you are selected for X X Yellows New where you are selected for X After receiving health advice X At least two months before going abroad X At least two months before		21.1.2					>	(×	correct documentation from the partner university Look for grants and scholarships							>	(×	selected for Erasmus+ Grant for Study Arrange official approval for your course selection from your Examination Board Obtain health advice for your country and if necessary get vaccinations Check if you are allowed to bring your medication and/or bring prescriptions in English/local language If applicable, apply for public transport smartcard (OV-chipkaart) reimbursement If applicable, apply for a grant for students living away from home (uitwonendenbeurs) If you wish, arrange authorizations for dealings with institutions like DUO and your bank Check the costs of obtaining cash in your destination country and apply for a credit card if necessary Apply for an International Student Identity Card (ISIC) for X When you know where you are selected for X After receiving health advice X After receiving health advice X Aft least two months before going abroad X At least two months before going abroad At least two months before going abroad At least two months before going abroad At least two months before		· ·			2	×			×	selected for your Examination Board Obtain health advice for your country and if necessary get vaccinations Check if you are allowed to bring your medication and/or bring prescriptions in English/local language If applicable, apply for public transport smartcard (OV-chipkaart) reimbursement If applicable, apply for a grant for students living away from home (uitwonendenbeurs) If you wish, arrange authorizations for dealings with institutions like DUO and your bank Check the costs of obtaining cash in your destination country and apply for an International Student Identity Card (ISIC) for X When you know where you are selected for X After receiving health advice X At least two months before going abroad X At least two months before going abroad X At least two months before going abroad At least two months before		Erasmus+ Grant for Study			_ :	×				an email to apply vaccinations Check if you are allowed to bring your medication and/or bring prescriptions in English/local language If applicable, apply for public transport smartcard (OV-chipkaart) reimbursement If applicable, apply for a grant for students living away from home (uitwonendenbeurs) If you wish, arrange authorizations for dealings with institutions like DUO and your bank Check the costs of obtaining cash in your destination country and apply for a credit card if necessary Apply for an International Student Identity Card (ISIC) for After receiving health advice X After receiving health advice X At least two months before going abroad X At least two months before going abroad At least two months before going abroad At least two months before		your Examination Board	;	X			>	(×	selected for bring prescriptions in English/local language If applicable, apply for public transport smartcard (OV- chipkaart) reimbursement If applicable, apply for a grant for students living away from home (uitwonendenbeurs) If you wish, arrange authorizations for dealings with institutions like DUO and your bank Check the costs of obtaining cash in your destination country and apply for a credit card if necessary Apply for an International Student Identity Card (ISIC) for At least two months before going abroad X At least two months before going abroad At least two months before going abroad At least two months before							>	(×	When you know where you are selected for
If applicable, apply for public transport smartcard (OV-									×	After receiving health advice
If applicable, apply for a grant for students living away from home (uitwonendenbeurs) If you wish, arrange authorizations for dealings with institutions like DUO and your bank Check the costs of obtaining cash in your destination country and apply for a credit card if necessary Apply for an International Student Identity Card (ISIC) for At least two months before going abroad At least two months before going abroad At least two months before		If applicable, apply for public transport smartcard (OV-			2	×			×
If you wish, arrange authorizations for dealings with institutions like DUO and your bank Check the costs of obtaining cash in your destination country and apply for a credit card if necessary Apply for an International Student Identity Card (ISIC) for At least two months before going abroad At least two months before		If applicable, apply for a grant for students living away from home (uitwonendenbeurs)							×	At least two months before
Check the costs of obtaining cash in your destination country and apply for a credit card if necessary Apply for an International Student Identity Card (ISIC) for At least two months before design abroad At least two months before		If you wish, arrange authorizations for dealings with							×	At least two months before
Apply for an International Student Identity Card (ISIC) for At least two months before		Check the costs of obtaining cash in your destination							×	At least two months before
		Apply for an International Student Identity Card (ISIC) for							×	At least two months before

X

Compile a budget of your expected income and expenses

during your stay abroad Keep yourself updated on travel advice for your destination country

At least two months before

At least two months before

going abroad

going abroad

Study abroad checklist

		Who can advise						е
✓ Done	What	Home institution (HU)	Study Abroad Coordinator	Home institution (HU)	International Office (IO)	Host institution	Partner university	Others	When
Pr	actical matters to arrange before you go abroad
	Check the coverage of your health and liability insurance							×	At least two months before going abroad
	De-activate your public transport smartcard (OV-chipkaart) at a card terminal (ophaalautomaat)							×	Before the first day of the first month of your reimbursement
	Apply to the ANWB (Dutch Automobile Association) for an international driving license if you plan to drive during your stay abroad							×	Before you go abroad
	Make scans of all your official documents and email them to yourself and a contact person at home							×	Before you go abroad
	Write down emergency contact and medical details and keep them with you during your stay abroad							×	Before you go abroad
	Register your stay abroad so that you are automatically entitled to free HU travel insurance			×	1			×	Before you go abroad
	Inform your family and friends where you are going and give them your contact details							×	Before you go abroad
	Check the Luggage Packing List and Tips			×				×	Before you go abroad
	Read how to make the most of your time abroad			×				×	Before you go abroad
Ha	ave you completed all of the above steps? Congratulations!	′ ou	are	now	ful	ly p	repa	ared fo	r a great adventure abroad,